

Household Battery Recycling

Now Available in school

Recycling helps to educate children on the importance of environmental matters. It helps communicate how positive action can help reduce pollution and protect the planet.

The household batteries shown below can be brought into school to be recycled.

Batteries MUST be brought to the school office by an adult and not given to children.

